

REDUCE AND RECOVER: SAVE FOOD FOR PEOPLE SAVE THE DATE

June 28-29, 2016 Harvard Law School
Cambridge, MA

Join the Harvard Food Law and Policy Clinic, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Protection, and RecyclingWorks Massachusetts for an action-oriented conference.

This conference will convene entrepreneurs, practitioners, policymakers, and enthusiasts to further a public dialogue on reaching EPA and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's national food waste reduction goal of 50% by 2030. The conference will focus on the top two priorities in EPA's Food Recovery Hierarchy: "source reduction" and "feed hungry people."

Conference topics will include:

- Food Recovery Entrepreneurs and Innovation
- Donation Opportunities by Sector: Farm, Retail, and Institutions
- Consumer Awareness and Education
- Federal, State and Local Regulations and Policies
- Strategies to Measure Waste
